

We offer two courses in writing fiction. The Fundamentals of Fiction contains 6 lessons covering author identity, character and plot development, dialogue viewpoint and more. An advanced class offers 6 more lessons discussing the art of storytelling, grammar basics, writing proposals and marketing.

The courses are $80 each. Students receive a video a week and a PDF assigning written assignments and study notes. Timed consultations, one per student, are open for the duration of the class and arranged by appointment only. (Usually by Skype.)

Currently the classes are closed but will reopen in 2018.
